Privatization of UTI

50. SHRI C.O. POULOSE: Will the Minister of FINANCE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the bifurcated portion of the UTI, (UTI-II) will be entrusted to Asset Management Company (AMC) and it will be privatized;

(b) if so, the details of the sponsors of the AMC; and

(c) what are the benefits Government are expecting from the privatization of UTI-II?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI ANANDRAO VITHOBA ADSUL): (a) to (c) State Bank of India, Punjab National Bank, Bank of Baroda and the Life Insurance Corporation of India (Sponsors) have set up UTI Mutual Fund, the UTI Trustee Company and the UTI Asset Management Company Pvt. Ltd., in accordance with SEBI (Mutual Fund) Regulations. The UTI Asset Management Company Pvt. Ltd. is managing the schemes mentioned in the Schedule II to the Unit Trust of India (Transfer of Undertaking and Repeal) Act, 2002. As per the agreement signed between the Government and the above sponsors on 15th January, 2003, Government will receive compensation from the sponsors for a price to be determined by mutual agreement. Also, this move ring fences the liability of Government towards UTI and allows UTI-II to be run like other Mutual Funds in the country under SEBI regulations.
